

Things That I Adore

Soon we'll meet again
I can understand
Something's in between us
I can hardly wait
Don't tell me it's too late
That we could be together

Before you fade away

Ask you for some more
Things that I adore
Is that what you're looking for?
Soon we'll meet again
You should understand
Something's still between us

Don't you cry, you're only dreaming
And you know I'm still alive
Travel on, you're brightly beaming
Now I know you will arrive

Before you fade away
